1 We sit by the ocean, sit by the ocean a rainy day
We sit by the ocean, sit by the ocean a rainy day

The sun is hidden from view, by heavy clouds hanging in the sky
Oh sun, where are you
Dispel the darkness here around us, illuminate this universe
And showerer of benefits, come make us happy

We sit by the ocean, sit by the ocean a rainy day

B: Suddenly now, a wind starts to blow – heavy and strong
It blows all the clouds away from the sky – the darkness is gone
Gone is fear and heavy gloom
Leaving self-fulfilment in bloom
The sun shines, the sun shines on us

2 We sit by the ocean, sit by the ocean a rainy day

When weakness is strong and hate makes us blind
Love, love, love, love
Love is the wind that clears our mind
Love, love, love, love
