

You

LP "Flow Soma", Silence Records 1982, SRS 4672

1 You, you my dear – you, always near

You, here within me, in an endless now

And you, your essence permeating every fibre of my being

And you, my master – an embodiment of life and love

2 You, you are truth – you, you are life

You, we grow together, into an endless web

And you, when we're dwelling in each other, life is blooming in it's fullness

And you, my master – an embodiment of life and love

B: I am satisfied with what you give, longing for nothing else

You fill the lotus of my heart, and no room is left

3 You, you my dear – you, always near

You, as unbounded as the firmament

And you, in the tender beams of daybreak I'll be seeing, seeing you

And you, my master – an embodiment of life and love
